

Introduction to the IPSV Train-the-Trainer Kit

What is the IPSV Train-the-Trainer Kit?

This is a set of materials intended for anyone who would like to train others on the topic of Intimate Partner Sexual Violence (IPSV).

What is contained in this kit?

1. The Intimate Partner Sexual Violence Train-the-Trainer Curriculum
2. A downloadable PowerPoint presentation
3. An Action Plan handout
4. A Sample Evaluation Form
5. An IPSV Resources and References Guide

The curriculum contains copies all of the elements above, but they are also presented in original form in the kit for your ease in using and modifying each component.

How may I use these materials?

You may use them any way you wish. You are free to reproduce the materials in whole or in part, and to modify them to suit your needs.

Who will benefit from these materials?

While the curriculum was designed primarily to be used for educating community advocates who work with IPSV survivors, it may be useful for a wide variety of professionals. Many of the materials could also be adapted to create prevention and education programs for general audiences.

Where should I direct questions about and feedback on this Kit?

Please contact the Washington Coalition of Sexual Assault Programs (WCSAP) at (360) 754-7583. Our web address is www.wcsap.org.

This project was supported by Grant No. 2005-WE-AX-0132 awarded by the Office on Violence Against Women, U.S. Department of Justice. The opinions, findings, conclusions, and recommendations expressed in this publication/program/exhibition are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect the views of the Department of Justice, Office on Violence Against Women. Grant funds are administered by the Office of Crime Victims Advocacy, Washington State Department of Community, Trade and Economic Development.